

I'm Looking Forward to Authors' Replies to These Concerns

- The association of transferrin saturation, dietary iron intake and cancer risk<sup>27</sup>
- How researchers studying cognitive strategies of physicians figuratively got into the heads of their study participants<sup>28</sup>
- The analysis methods of a study of patients not accepting the diagnosis of depression (questions raised by medical students using the article for a journal club)<sup>29</sup>

This is my personal list of learning from the recent online discussion of the Annals community. What is yours?
