TTUHSC El Paso Seeks Family Medicine Faculty Physicians

Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso is seeking family physicians, to play a role in the development of the clinical and educational programs, and address the health disparities of the region. These unique opportunities are designed for dynamic clinicians, with a strong interest in teaching medical students and residents, in an in-patient and out-patient setting. To include Family Medicine with or w/o OB, and Family Medicine Residency Program Director.

These positions requires an M.D. or D.O. degree, board eligible/board certified, licensed or eligibility for medical licensure in Texas, and successful completion of an ACGME accredited family medicine residency program.

El Paso has been ranked one of the safest cities in America, for a community of it's size. Nestled between the Franklin Mountains and the Rio Grande, city residents enjoy 300 + days of sunshine a year, numerous outdoor pursuits, and a vibrant city life at an affordable cost of living. Experience the personally rewarding practice of medicine in this friendly and growing community.

As an EEO/AA employer, the Texas Tech University System and its components will not discriminate in our employment practices based on an applicant's race, ethnicity, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetic information or status as a protected veteran.
