

Supplemental materials for:

Cantone R, Fleishman J, Garvey B, Gideonse N.
Interdisciplinary management of opioid use disorder in primary care. Ann Fam Med. 2018;16(1):83.

Rebecca E. Cantone, MD¹

Joan Fleishman, PsyD²

Brian Garvey, MD, MPH¹

Nicholas Gideonse, MD²

¹OHSU Scappoose Family Medicine Clinic, Scappoose, Oregon

²OHSU Family Medicine at Richmond, Portland, Oregon

Funding support: FQHC – DHHS HRSA16074 Substance Use Disorder Treatment Expansion, Grant: 6 H80CS241610404. RHC- No initial funding until program established. Columbia County Coordinated Care Organization provided additional funding for hiring, and we then received a grant from The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (1H79TI026752-01 – Expanding MAT Capacity Across Oregon).

Prior presentations: Nick Gideonse, MD; Joan Fleishman; Amanda Risser, MD. Scaling Up: Expanding Access to Medication Assisted Treatment of Substance Use Disorders With Team-Based Care. STFM Conference on Practice Improvement, Newport Beach, California, 2017.

References

1. Korthuis PT, McCarty D, Weimer M, Bougatsos C, Blazina I, Zakher B, et al. Primary care-based models for the treatment of opioid use disorder: a scoping review. Ann Intern Med. 2017;166:268–278.